

Left:
Untitled, 1993, an acrylic on paper by Gillian Ayres (1920-2018),
is offered for £25,000.

Individuals gathered together

Several galleries focus on female artists at this edition of LAW. Among them is Stephen Ongpin Fine Art, which stages Beauty in Individualism: A Selection of works by women artists of the 20th and 21st centuries from June 30-July 28 at its Mayfair gallery.

The beginning of the title is taken from a quote by YBA Jenny Saville, whose work features in the show alongside pieces by Dora Maar, Gwen John, Alic Neel and Gillian Ayres. Mixed in to the offering is a selection of pictures by less-well known figures, including several emerging Contemporary artists.